

Atlantic Canada Studies

Please Note:

Prospective job candidates are URGED to check with the respective department, dean, or payroll office for a more detailed description of qualifications. DO NOT apply for jobs via CUPE 3912, but directly with the contact person for each job posting. Some departments may accept applications online; others might not. It is our recommendation that you include a COMPLETE CV with every application, even if it is not requested.

Jobs are listed newest-to-oldest and expired job postings are periodically archived.

Course: ACST/GEOG 3340.2

COURSE TITLE: Geography of Nova Scotia

Department: Geography, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January–April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 2:30pm–3:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course explores the geographical diversity of the province, with particular emphasis on interrelationships between physical and human patterns. A section on the physical environment is followed by a discussion of settlement, cultural patterns, and economic development. Current issues of resource development, industrial reorganization, environmental management, and land use planning are addressed.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Geography and/or Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Chair of the Department of Geography, Dr. Jason Grek-Martin: geography@smu.ca

Application deadline: September 18th, 2020

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies
Part-time Job Postings, 2020-2021

FALL 2020

Course: ACST 1000.1A

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2020 (September-December 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 1000.1B

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2020 (September-December 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 3312.1

COURSE TITLE: Living in Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2020 (September-December 2020)

Schedule: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course examines on-going societal issues facing Atlantic Canadians. In a seminar setting, student teams and weekly guest speakers from non-government organizations, engage students in lively presentations about the current challenges facing those living and working in this region. Topics include arts and culture, poverty and homelessness, women, youth, crime, addictions, and concerns faced by aboriginal, black, Muslim, and immigrant communities. The structure of this course provides students a unique learning environment.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 4411.1/5991.1

COURSE TITLE: Atlantic Canada Seminar I/Research Methods

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2020 (September-December 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course will provide an opportunity for students to integrate their knowledge of Atlantic Canada in an interdisciplinary fashion. Drawing upon the expertise of a number of guest speakers familiar with various aspects of Atlantic Provinces life, the course will deal with such topics as the Atlantic fishery, agriculture, industry and labour, business enterprise, regional protest and cultural ethnicity.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

WINTER 2021

Course: ACST 1000.2A

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities.

Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 1000.2B

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 11:30am-12:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 2311.2

COURSE TITLE: Inheriting Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This interdisciplinary course will offer a survey of the history and culture of people of Irish descent in the Atlantic Region. Topics will include Irish settlement in the Atlantic Region, religion and politics, sectarian conflict, social status, community organizations and contemporary Irish identity in the Atlantic Region.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation,

class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 3325.2

COURSE TITLE: The Irish & Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This interdisciplinary course will offer a survey of the history and culture of people of Irish descent in the Atlantic Region. Topics will include Irish settlement in the Atlantic Region, religion and politics, sectarian conflict, social status, community organizations and contemporary Irish identity in the Atlantic Region.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 3340.2

COURSE TITLE: Geography of Nova Scotia

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course explores the geographical diversity of the province, with particular emphasis on interrelationships between physical and human patterns. A section on the physical environment is followed by a discussion of settlement, cultural patterns, and economic development. Current issues of resource development, industrial reorganization, environmental management, and land use planning are addressed.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 3830.2

COURSE TITLE: The African Nova Scotian Experience Now and Then (Special Topics)

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Thursdays, 4:00pm-6:29pm

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation,

class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Course: ACST 4632.2/ACST 6632.2

COURSE TITLE: Atlantic Canada Ecology & Resources (Special Topics)

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2021 (January-April 2021)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 7:00pm-9:29pm

Academic Calendar Description:

Ecology provides the background for considering the many social, economic, political, and philosophical dimensions of environmental and resource use in Atlantic Canada today. In this interdisciplinary seminar course, students examine contemporary regional ecological concerns through the study of concepts such as environmentalism, sustainability, environmental governance, and ecological literacy.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2020

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Saint Mary's University

Atlantic Canada Studies

ACST 1000.1: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 9:30-12:29am

May 11 – June 22, 2020

Applicants must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline. Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

ACST 2341.1: Atlantic Provinces History to 1867

Tuesdays & Thursdays, 9:30am-12:29pm

May 11 – June 22, 2020

Applicants must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline. Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.2B

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 11:30am-12:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: December 15th, 2019, 5:00pm

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.1A

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2019 (September-December 2019)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.1B

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2019 (September-December 2019)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.2A

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3312.1

COURSE TITLE: Living in Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2019 (September-December 2019)

Schedule: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course examines on-going societal issues facing Atlantic Canadians. In a seminar setting, student teams and weekly guest speakers from non-government organizations, engage students in lively presentations about the current challenges facing those living and working in this region. Topics include arts and culture, poverty and homelessness, women, youth, crime, addictions, and concerns faced by aboriginal, black, Muslim, and immigrant communities. The structure of this course provides students a unique learning environment.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3321.1

COURSE TITLE: African Nova Scotian Culture

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2019 (September-December 2019)

Schedule: Thursdays, 4:00pm-6:30pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides a basic understanding of African Nova Scotian culture. It introduces students to the history and cultural heritage of African Nova Scotian communities, their experience of life today, and the various forms of artistic expression produced by the culture. It also offers insight into the problems and concerns of African Nova Scotian communities and their historical and cultural connections with the Black Diaspora.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 4411.1/5991.1

COURSE TITLE: Atlantic Canada Seminar I/Research Methods

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2019 (September-December 2019)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

This course will provide an opportunity for students to integrate their knowledge of Atlantic Canada in an interdisciplinary fashion. Drawing upon the expertise of a number of guest speakers familiar with various aspects of Atlantic Provinces life, the course will deal with such topics as the Atlantic fishery, agriculture, industry and labour, business enterprise, regional protest and cultural ethnicity.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 2311.2

COURSE TITLE: Inheriting Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1pm-2:15pm

Academic Calendar Description:

Ideas, attitudes, and assumptions about Atlantic Canada have been influenced by social, cultural, political, religious, and ethnic traditions inherited from the past. The curriculum of this course covers a wide range of topics from gender, refinement, material culture, dress, food, and conspicuous consumption, to political choices and ethnic biases. Lectures, readings, class discussions, and mixed media demonstrate how historical events and previous ways of behaving and thinking continue to influence social and cultural customs and decision-making.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 2839.2

COURSE TITLE: Piracy and Privateering in Atlantic Canada (Special Topics)

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Wednesdays, 5:30pm-8pm

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3829.2

COURSE TITLE: Black Atlantic Geographies (Special Topics)

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3835.2

COURSE TITLE: Settler Colonialism in Atlantic Canada (Special Topics)

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's

University.

Semester: Winter 2020 (January-April 2020)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to the Undergraduate Coordinator, Atlantic Canada Studies, Dr. Darryl Leroux: darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 15th, 2019

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities.

Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

ACST 1000.1: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Monday & Wednesdays, 9:30-12:29am

May 6 – June 21, 2019

Applicants must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline. Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Saint Mary's University
Department of History

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: HIST 3842.2 (Cross listed with ACST)
The Catholic North Atlantic: c.1608 to 1830
Department: Department of History, Saint Mary's University.
Semester: Winter 2019, 01/08-04/18

Schedule: 1:00-2:15 pm, MW

Academic Calendar Description:

This course will examine the history of Catholicism and the presence of the Catholic church as one of the key features in the meeting of peoples and cultures in the North Atlantic – including Atlantic Canada, the western peripheries of the French empire, and some of the British continental colonies. French missionary contact with First Nations peoples as well as contact between Catholics and Protestants after the Conquest of Canada will be discussed, as well as more institutional developments stemming from the two capitals of North American Catholicism, Québec and Baltimore.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant must possess at least an MA in History and have experience teaching the history of the Catholic Atlantic at the senior university level. Candidates must also possess publications and/or have demonstrated research in the field.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include Duties and responsibilities encompass all aspects of course delivery – including the preparation of lectures and the creation and evaluation of all student assessments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: history@smu.ca

Application deadline: Oct 25, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies
CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST / HIST 2839 -2

COURSE TITLE: Special Topics: Piracy & Privateering in Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Wednesdays, 5:30-8:15

Academic Calendar Description:

Students examine the history and popular perceptions of piracy and privateering in Atlantic Canada.

Qualifications: Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties: Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration: Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: August 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

.
CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.1A

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2018 (September – December 2018)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00-11:15

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.1B

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2018 (September – December 2018)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00-2:15

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 4411/5991

COURSE TITLE: Atlantic Canada Seminar / Research Methods

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Fall 2018 (September – December 2018)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00-2:15

Academic Calendar Description:

In this seminar students will explore the nature of interdisciplinary research and examine the principles and techniques of different approaches to interdisciplinary topics, focusing on their own proposed thesis research. Research ethics will also be discussed in detail. Practical discussions will include basic bibliographical research and the structure and organization of research papers and theses. At the conclusion of the course each student will present a formal thesis proposal to the ACST thesis committee and class members, and will engage in critical discussion of the proposals made by other students.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities.

Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 1000.2

COURSE TITLE: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00-11:15

Academic Calendar Description:

This course provides an introduction to the Atlantic Provinces. It will examine specific content areas from multiple perspectives, including cultural industries, health and social services, environmental issues, economic development, and representations of the region. This course is intended as an introduction to Atlantic Canada Studies and to interdisciplinary inquiry.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca
Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 2311.1

COURSE TITLE: Inheriting Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00-2:15

Academic Calendar Description:

Ideas, attitudes, and assumptions about Atlantic Canada have been influenced by social, cultural, political, religious, and ethnic traditions inherited from the past. The curriculum of this course covers a wide range of topics from gender, refinement, material culture, dress, food, and conspicuous consumption, to political choices and ethnic biases. Lectures, readings, class discussions, and mixed media demonstrate how historical events and previous ways of behaving and thinking continue to influence social and cultural customs and decision-making.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation,

class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3325

COURSE TITLE: The Irish and Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Tuesday & Thursday, 1:00-2:15

Academic Calendar Description:

This interdisciplinary course will offer a survey of the history and culture of people of Irish descent in the Atlantic Region. Topics will include Irish settlement in the Atlantic Region, religion and politics, sectarian conflict, social status, community organizations and contemporary Irish identity in the Atlantic Region.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities.

Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 3828

COURSE TITLE: Special Topics: Musical Culture of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Tuesdays & Thursdays, 11:30-12:45

Academic Calendar Description:

This course explores the folk and local musical traditions of Atlantic Canada.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca
Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: ACST 4633/6633

COURSE TITLE: Reading the Landscapes of Atlantic Canada

Department: Atlantic Canada Studies, Faculty of Arts, Saint Mary's University.

Semester: Winter 2019 (January – April 2019)

Schedule: Tuesdays, 7:00-9:30

Academic Calendar Description:

Reading landscapes is an interdisciplinary investigation of the relationship between natural history, ecology, and human activity in regional landscapes. This course examines the ecology and environment of Atlantic Canada through seminar discussion, with an emphasis on field study trips to various sites, both urban and rural. Since direct immersion in landscape can nurture a better understanding of the diversity of life and one's own culture and environment, this course will accentuate interactive engagement with flora and fauna, as well as contact with individuals and communities concerned with ecological literacy and environmental issues. Interpretive hikes and projects will explore landscapes that include forests, marshlands, beaches, rivers, fields, and urban streets.

Qualifications: Preferred applicant will have a minimum of an MA and experience teaching in the area of Atlantic Canada studies at the university level.

Duties: Duties and responsibilities include course and lecture preparation, class lectures, and evaluation of student assignments.

Remuneration: Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: susan.haines@smu.ca and blake.brown@smu.ca

Application deadline: April 13th, 2018

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Saint Mary's University

Atlantic Canada Studies

ACST 1000.1: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Monday & Wednesdays, 9:30-12:29am

May 7 – June 22, 2018

Applicants must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline. Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Blake Brown
Graduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
Blake.brown@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is January 5, 2018.

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

ACST 3320.2 Gender in Atlantic Canada
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm
January 3 – April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline. Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Blake Brown
Graduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
Blake.brown@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is September 26, 2017.

ACST 3325.2 The Irish and Atlantic Canada
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm
January 3 — April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.
Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca
Deadline for applications is April 28, 2017

SAINT MARY'S UNIVERSITY
Atlantic Canada Studies

Fall 2017

1. ACST 1000.1A Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am

September 6 — December 16, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

2. ACST 1000.1B Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm
September 6 — December 16, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

3. ACST 2311.1 Inheriting Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 11:30am-12:45pm

September 6 — December 16, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

4. ACST 3320.1 Gender in Atlantic Canada
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm
September 6 — December 16, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

5. ACST 4411.1 Seminar in Atlantic Canada I/ACST 5991.1
Research Methods

Mondays & Wednesdays, 1:00pm-2:15pm
September 6 — December 16, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Blake Brown
Graduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
Blake.Brown@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

Winter Term 2018

1. ACST 1000.2 Making Sense of Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 10:00am-11:15am
January 3 — April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

2. ACST 3312.2 Living in Atlantic Canada
Mondays & Wednesdays, 11:30am-12:45pm
January 3 — April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

3. ACST 3321.2 African Nova Scotian Culture
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 4:00pm-5:15pm
January 3 — April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

4. ACST 3821.2 Special Topics: Sociology of Atlantic Canada
(cross-listed with Sociology)
Tuesdays & Thursdays, 2:30pm-3:45pm
January 3 — April 20, 2018

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

5. ACST 4632/6632.2 Atlantic Canada Ecology & Resources
Thursdays, 7:00pm-9:30pm
January 3 — April 20, 2018
Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for two academic references to:

Blake Brown
Graduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3
Blake.Brown@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2017.

SAINT MARY'S UNIVERSITY

Atlantic Canada Studies

Advertisement for Part-Time Teaching

Subject to budgetary approval, Atlantic Canada Studies is seeking to staff the following course for the Spring 2017 session of the 2016-17 academic year:

ACST 1000.1: Making Sense of Atlantic Canada

Mondays & Wednesdays, 9:30am-12:30pm

May 8 —June 22, 2017

Must possess a graduate degree in a related discipline.

Interested candidates should submit a curriculum vitae and contact information for three academic references to:

Darryl Leroux

Undergraduate Coordinator

Atlantic Canada Studies

Saint Mary's University

Halifax, N.S. B3H 3C3

darryl.leroux@smu.ca

Deadline for applications is February 10, 2017.

Saint Mary's University

Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Wednesday, May 4, 2016

Closing Date: Friday, May 20, 2016

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the 2016-2017 academic year. The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Fall 2016:

ACST 3320-1: Gender in Atlantic Canada. Monday & Wednesday
4:00pm-5:15 pm

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Blake Brown
Graduate Coordinator & Acting Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3
Email: blake.brown@smu.ca
Tel: 902-420-5762

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies
Date of Posting: Friday, April 15, 2016
Closing Date: Friday, May 2, 2016

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following courses for the 2016-2017 academic year. The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Fall 2016:

ACST 1000.1B Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 1:00-2:15 PM

ACST 2311.1 Inheriting Atlantic Canada MW 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM

Winter 2017:

ACST 1000.2 Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 10:00-11:15 AM

ACST 3312.2 Living in Atlantic Canada MW 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM

ACST 4633.2 / 6633.2 Reading the Landscape of Atlantic Canada – Ecological Connection to Place W 7:00-9:30PM

ACST 4543.2 / 6643.2 Indigenous Peoples of Atlantic Canada M 4:00-6:30

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Blake Brown

Graduate Coordinator & Acting Undergraduate Coordinator

Atlantic Canada Studies

Saint Mary's University

Halifax, NS B3H 3C3

Email: blake.brown@smu.ca

Tel: 902-420-5762

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Thursday, February 1st, 2016

Closing Date: Thursday, February 21st, 2016

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following courses for the 2015 summer session (May and June).

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA, research expertise in the selected area, and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

ACST 1000 Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 9:30-12:30

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3
Email: darryl.leroux@smu.ca
Tel: 902-420-5879
Fax: 902-420-5121

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies
Date of Posting: Friday, December 4, 2015
Closing Date: Friday, December 18, 2015

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the Winter 2016 academic term.

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: Bachelor's degree with at least two years of directly related teaching and/or professional experience.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Winter 2016:

ACST 2849.2 Special Topics – Intro to Mi'kmaq Language MW
4:00-5:15 PM

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Darryl Leroux
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3
Email: darryl.leroux@smu.ca
Tel: 902-420-5870
Fax: 902-420-5121

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Tuesday, May 5th, 2015

Closing Date: Friday, May 15th, 2015

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the 2015-2016 academic year.

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Fall 2015:

ACST 1000.1B Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 1:00-2:15 PM

ACST 2311.1 Inheriting Atlantic Canada MW 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM

Winter 2016:

ACST 1000.2 Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 10:00-11:15 AM

ACST 2849.2 Special Topics – Intro to Mi'kmaq Language MW 4:00-5:15 PM

ACST 3312.2 Living in Atlantic Canada MW 11:30 AM – 12:45 PM

ACST 3321.2 African Nova Scotia Culture TR 4:00-5:15 PM

ACST 4482.2/6632.2 Atlantic Canada Ecology & Resources W 7:00-9:30PM

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Alexander MacLeod
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3

Email: alexander.macleod@smu.ca
Fax: 420-5110
Tel: 491-6222

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Thursday, March 26th, 2015

Closing Date: Thursday, April 9th, 2015

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following courses for the 2015 summer session (May and June).

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA, research expertise in the selected area, and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

ACST 1000 Making Sense of Atlantic Canada MW 9:30-12:30

ACST 3364 Nova Scotia in the Romantic Age TR 9:30-12:30

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Alexander MacLeod
Undergraduate Coordinator
Atlantic Canada Studies
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3

Email: alexander.macleod@smu.ca

Fax: 420-5110

Tel: 491-6222

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: October 27th, 2014

Closing Date: Friday, November 7th, 2014

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the Winter 2015 term:

ACST 2826.2 Special Topic – Nova Scotia and the Sea M 7:00 – 9:30 PM.

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: A Master's Degree; demonstrable research expertise in the area; and previous teaching experience with this material at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Alexander MacLeod Email: alexander.macleod@smu.ca
Undergraduate Coordinator Fax: 420-5110
Atlantic Canada Studies Tel: 491-6222
Saint Mary's University
Halifax, NS B3H 3C3

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Monday, July 21, 2014
Closing Date: Friday, August 8, 2014

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the 2014-2015 academic year.

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies

Precedence List.

Winter 2015:

ACST 6633.2 Reading the Landscapes of Atlantic Canada W

7:00 – 9:30 PM

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Michael Vance Email: michael.vance@smu.ca

Acting Graduate Coordinator Fax: 420-5141

Atlantic Canada Studies Tel: 420-5766

Saint Mary's University

Halifax, NS B3H 3C3

table border="1">

Saint Mary's University
Atlantic Canada Studies

Date of Posting: Monday, April 3, 2014

Closing Date: Friday, April 14, 2014

The Atlantic Canada Studies Program wishes to staff the following course for the 2014-2015 academic year.

The Program requires the following qualifications and experience:

Minimum: MA and experience teaching Atlantic Canada Studies at the university level.

Applications are invited from all qualified candidates and from faculty colleagues who are on the Atlantic Canada Studies Precedence List.

Fall 2014:

ACST 2826.1	Special Topic – War & Memory in Atlantic Canada	R 7:00 – 9:30 PM
ACST 5991.1	Research Methods	W 7:00 – 9:30 PM
ACST 6643.1	Indigenous Peoples of Atlantic Canada	T 4:00 – 6:30 PM

Winter 2015:

ACST 2830.2	Special Topics – Local Culture – Global Economy	T 7:00 – 9:30 PM
ACST 6623.2	Atlantic Canada Ecology & Resources	W 7:00 – 9:30 PM

Please submit applications (with the names of two referees and updated CV) to:

Dr. Alexander MacLeod Email: alexander.macleod@smu.ca

Undergraduate Coordinator Fax: 420-5110

Atlantic Canada Studies Tel: 491-6222

Saint Mary's University

Halifax, NS B3H 3C3