Please Note:

Prospective job candidates are URGED to check with the respective department, dean, or payroll office for a more detailed description of qualifications. DO NOT apply for jobs via CUPE 3912, but directly with the contact person for each job posting. Some departments may accept applications online; others might not. It is our recommendation that you include a COMPLETE CV with every application, even if it is not requested.

Jobs are listed newest-to-oldest and expired job postings are periodically archived.

ROWE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Dalhousie University

Halifax, Nova Scotia

B3H 4R2

Posting Date: January 10, 2014

Application Deadline: January 21, 2014

Position: Part-Time Academic

Department/Location: Rowe School of Business

Pay Rate: $4565.50 per course (In accordance with CUPE Collective Agreement)

Work Assignment:

A Part-Time Academic is needed to teach all four sections of the first half of Finance II, May to mid-June 2014.

Commerce 2203 – Finance II

Requirements:

An MBA degree and a background in Finance are required.

The successful applicant must have demonstrated knowledge of the subject matter, and an established record of teaching experience. Applicants familiar with teaching Finance II in the summer session are preferred. The successful candidate must also be able to meet the School's accrediting body (AACSB) academic or professional qualification requirements.

Duties included, but are not limited to:

The Part-Time Academic will be responsible for all aspects of teaching and administering the class, including lectures, test preparation and evaluation. Specifically, because the teaching of this course will be shared with another instructor, the successful applicant will be expected to prepare and mark the midterm examination for the first part of the course, and to coordinate the scheduling of the course material with the other instructor.

The Part-Time Academic should be available for two hours per week for consultation with students. The Part-Time Academic reports to the Director of the Department.

Please apply in writing by the above deadline to:

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Relevant university degree and a Professional accounting designation. Financial accounting courses require a working knowledge of international financial reporting standards as evidenced by successful completion of a course offered by a university or a professional accounting society. EXPERIENCE: These positions require experience and/or aptitude to teach Accounting courses at the university level; relevant recent industry experience is expected. DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching (including labs where applicable), regularly scheduled on campus office hours for student consultation, distribution of instructor evaluation questionnaires, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as assigned. Note that a student assistant is generally available for classes with enrolments above 35. These students may assist with the marking of assignments and quizzes, offering tutorials and help sessions, and proctoring but not marking mid-term and final exams.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES: Most of these courses are coordinated by a full time faculty member. The successful applicant will be expected to participate in meetings involving all instructors. At these meetings, a common syllabus (including a common grading scheme) will be set as well as any common assignments, tests, quizzes, projects and exams deemed necessary. SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with precedence level and in accordance with the current pay scales as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912. DEADLINE: Applications will be reviewed as they are submitted and are welcome until all positions are filled. While qualified applicants who have precedence under the Collective Agreement with CUPE 3912 will be given first consideration for an appointment new applicants or those not on the precedence list are welcome to apply.

Saint Mary's University Sobey School of Business Co-operative Management Education Program

Winter 2014 (January 6 to April 26) Tuesdays 5:30-8:15 pm, Loyola 271MMCC 6690-6700: Special Topics (Introduction to the Co-operative Business Model) This course is intended for graduate students outside of the present Co-operative Management Education programs (Masters and Diploma.) It is directed at, but not limited to, those in other masters programs in business administration, international development studies, women and gender studies, sociology, economics, and the like. The purpose is to give students a general introduction to co-operatives, the goals and principles of the co-operative movement, and issues such as governance, leadership, community involvement, and co-operative history, economics, accounting, finance, marketing and human resources. MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Relevant university degree (preferably Masters or higher) and a strong knowledge of and contacts in the co-operative movement in Canada/Nova Scotia. EXPERIENCE: Experience working for a co-operative or on the board of a co-operative is very highly valued. DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching, regularly scheduled office hours for student consultation, distribution of instructor evaluation questionnaires, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as assigned. SALARY RANGE: Remuneration will be in accordance with the current pay scales as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912. DEADLINE: Applications must be received by Friday, October 25, 2013 or until position is filled. TO APPLY: Please send your application via email to: Co-operative Management Education Programs Program Assistant Cathy Mason cathy.mason@smu.ca; copy to: Program Co-ordinator Dr. Larry Haiven larry.haiven@smu.ca. This is the first offering of this course. As such, applicants must submit evidence so that the program council can consider approving applicants as qualified to teach the course. Qualified status does not guarantee that the candidate will be chosen if there are several qualified candidates. If chosen, the successful applicant will enter the precedence list for this course.
