POSITION TITLE	Part-Time Academic (Introduction to Arabic II – ARBC 1022)
POSTING NUMBER	PTAP261P
DEPARTMENT/UNIT	Classics
LOCATION	Halifax
JOB SUMMARY & KEY RESPONSIBILITIES	Part-time academic required to teach ARBC 1022: Introduction to Arabic II. (MW 1135-1255; January – April 2021). The successful candidate will be fully responsible for both teaching the class content and assessing the students' progress (through in-class evaluation, marking assignments, tests, and the final exam, and granting the final grades). He/she will be available to students in office hours and will meet (at the start of the term and periodically, if necessary) with the Undergraduate advisor for Arabic Studies, to coordinate the teaching process and ensure efficiency. This position is supervised by the Chair, Department of Classics.

ARBC 1022 is an introductory Arabic language class, the continuation of ARBC 1021 taught in the Fall term;

students enrolled in ARBC 1022 already know the Arabic alphabet (can write and read with complete vocalization), have basic notions of grammar and vocabulary. The teacher will take them to the next level of the introductory stage, by adding new grammatical structures, verb conjugation (at the present and future tenses), and richer vocabulary, conversational skills, etc., introduced in the second part of the textbook, "Mastering Arabic I" (by Jane Wightwick and Mahmoud Gaafar, 2015 edition).

QUALIFICATIONS/REQUIREMENTS OF POSITION Applicants are expected to have a high command of Modern Standard Arabic -including written and oral aspects, vocabulary, and conversation in this linguistic variety – attested through a Bachelor degree (or higher) in Arabic Language or in a field of Humanities. Previous experience in teaching Arabic language at the university level (to non-native speakers) would be an asset, but not an exclusive condition.
