POSITION TITLE	Part-Time Academic (FREN 1007)
POSTING NUMBER	PTAP415P
DEPARTMENT/UNIT	French
LOCATION	Other
JOB SUMMARY & KEY RESPONSIBILITIES	A part-time instructor is needed to teach French 1007.03 (07) for the fall term of the 2020-2021 academic year (September – December 2020, with synchronous online sessions on Mondays and Wednesdays 13:05-14:25).

The selected applicant will teach the basic components of French grammar (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) to students with no previous background in French or who have studied French up to grade 8-9. As instructor, the candidate will be responsible for all aspects of teaching and administering the class, including lectures, test preparation, evaluation and electronic submission of grades. Instructors are expected to maintain reliable and constant communication with the administration of the Department, to be available for two hours per week for consultation with students, and to have students fill out the evaluation questionnaire at the end of the course. Instructors report to the Chairperson of the Department.

Due to the current Covid-19 outbreak and ongoing extensions to social distance protocols, Dalhousie University has moved this course online for the Fall semester. Experience with teaching in an online environment is preferred. All instructors hired to teach online will be supported by Dalhousie's Centre for Learning and Teaching, and Academic Technology Services (support@dal.ca), to deliver their courses online. More information about preparing to teach online can be found at <https://www.dal.ca/dept/clt.html>.

The Department of Modern Languages and Classics is seeking an instructor to teach the following course which will be offered during Summer Session 1, 2019 (May 6 – June 21, 2019).

FREN 1111.1 – Beginners' French Level 1 – Mondays and Wednesdays – 9:30 – 12:30

This is an introductory course in French for students who have had no formal training in the language, or not enough to justify their admission into French 2201 and 2202, as demonstrated through the French placement test. Students who have completed two (2) years of senior high school Core French or equivalent are not eligible for enrollment in this course. (Please note that this course does not count towards the French major and is not intended for immersion students, those having taken enriched or extended French programs, or Francophone students.)

We require that candidates have at least a Master's Degree in French or a related field, and a demonstrated record of success teaching at the university-level.

In accordance with CUPE Local 3912 Collective agreement (16.06), priority will be given to part-time faculty colleagues who are on the Department's precedence list. The closing date is February 28, 2018.

Applications should be sent to:

Dr. Myles McCallum, Chair
Modern Languages and Classics
Saint Mary's University

PART-TIME ACADEMIC POSTING
DALHOUSIE UNIVERSITY
Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada B3H 4H6

POSTING DATE: 4 December 2018
APPLICATION DEADLINE: 14 December 2018
POSITION: Part-Time Academic (1 January 2019-30 April 2019)
DEPARTMENT/LOCATION: French
PAY RATE: Per the CUPE Collective Agreement

WORK ASSIGNMENT:

A part-time instructor is needed to teach French 1008.03 (05) for the winter term of the 2018-2019 academic year. This section of the course is currently scheduled to be taught Mondays and Wednesdays from 13:05-14:25.

The selected applicant will teach the basic components of French grammar (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) to students with no previous background in French or who have studied French up to grade 8-9. As instructor, the candidate will be responsible for all aspects of teaching and administering the class, including lectures, test preparation, evaluation and electronic submission of grades. Instructors are expected to maintain reliable and constant communication with the administration of the Department, to be available for two hours per week for consultation with students, and to have students fill out the evaluation questionnaire at the end of the course. Instructors report to the Chairperson of the Department.

REQUIREMENTS OF POSITION:

At least a Master's degree in French, plus previous teaching experience. Native or near-native competence in French. There is a requirement for an interview for all candidates who have not previously been interviewed for a position at the 1000 or 1005 levels, who have never held a full time position in the department or who are not retired faculty. Any candidate has a right to be re-interviewed for each new hiring cycle but must specifically request this. In addition to a letter of application, candidates may submit any supporting document they deem relevant, such as a CV, student evaluations, etc. Interviews will be conducted face to face or, exceptionally, by telephone.

IF YOU ARE INTERESTED IN THE ABOVE POSITION, PLEASE APPLY IN WRITING BY THE APPLICATION DEADLINE TO:

Dr. Christopher Elson
Chairperson
French Department
Dalhousie University
Halifax, N.S. B3H 4P9
Fax: 494-1626

All offers of employment as a part-time academic are conditional upon sufficient student enrolment in the course and approval by the University.

Dalhousie University is committed to fostering a collegial culture grounded in diversity and inclusiveness. The University encourages applications from Aboriginal people, persons with a disability, racially visible persons, women, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and all candidates who would contribute to the diversity of our community.

French up to grade 8-9. As instructor, the candidate will be responsible for all aspects of teaching and administering the class, including lectures, test preparation, evaluation and electronic submission of grades. Instructors are expected to maintain reliable and constant communication with the administration of the Department, to be available for two hours per week for consultation with students, and to have students fill out the evaluation questionnaire at the end of the course. Instructors report to the Chairperson of the Department.

REQUIREMENTS OF POSITION:

At least a Master's degree in French, plus previous teaching experience. Native or near-native competence in French. There is a requirement for an interview for all candidates who have not previously been interviewed for a position at the 1000 or 1005 levels, who have never held a full time position in the department or who are not retired faculty. Any candidate has a right to be re-interviewed for each new hiring cycle but must specifically request this. In addition to a letter of application, candidates may submit any supporting document they deem relevant, such as a CV, student evaluations, etc. Interviews will be conducted face to face or, exceptionally, by telephone.
