Department of Accounting Part Time Vacancies (CMLW)

The Department invites applications from qualified instructors for the following courses to be offered in the Fall semester beginning September 7, 2022.

NOTE: It is expected that classes offered during the Fall semester of 2022 will be a mixture of in-person classes taught on campus as well as those taught remotely, either synchronously or asynchronously. However, instructors must be prepared and able to teach from home or another secure and private location, even for on-campus classes, in case we are required to revert to an all online delivery approach. The available courses are listed below with their expected delivery approach. When applying for a position, applicants must be willing and able to teach using the delivery method specified. Those courses designated as Web courses must be taught asynchronously.

MBMINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor of Laws and Member of the Bar in a Canadian province. It is expected that all faculty will maintain their Professional standing by keeping their law society membership and professional development hours up to date

EXPERIENCE: These positions require experience and/or aptitude to teach Commercial Law courses at the university level. Relevant recent industry experience is expected.

Note: It is expected that several of these courses will be delivered remotely through online instruction. Experience with teaching in an online environment will therefore be considered as an asset in the appointment decision.

DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching (including labs where applicable), regularly scheduled office hours for student consultation, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as assigned.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES: Multi-sectioned courses are generally coordinated by a full time faculty member. The successful applicant will be expected to participate in any meetings involving all instructors. At these meetings, a common syllabus (including a common grading scheme) may be set as well as any common assignments, tests, quizzes, projects and exams.

STUDENT MARKERS: Student markers may be hired for those courses with more than 30 students enrolled. The Department secretary is available to assist in the marker hiring process with information on the online student / faculty matching system. It is the instructor's responsibility to interview and hire a suitable SMU student if required. Student markers may assist with quizzes and assignments only. It is the instructor's responsibility to mark all examinations.

SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with precedence level and in accordance with the current pay scales as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

DEADLINE: Applications must be received by Friday, June 3, 2022 or until positions are filled.

TO APPLY: Please send your application via email stating which course sections you are applying to teach in order of preference to:

Dr. Jeff Power jeff.power@smu.ca, copy to: accounting@smu.ca, Saint Mary's University, Halifax, NS, B3H 3C3

Qualified applicants who have precedence under the Collective Agreement with CUPE 3912 will be given first consideration for an appointment.

Department of Accounting Part Time Vacancies (ACCT)

The Department invites applications from qualified instructors for the following courses to be offered in the Winter semester beginning January 10, 2022.

NOTE: It is expected that classes offered during the Winter semester of 2022 will be primarily in-person and on campus. However, instructors must be prepared and able to teach from home or another secure and private location, even for on-campus classes, in case there is a renewed COVID outbreak and we revert to an all online delivery approach. The available courses are listed below with their preferred delivery approach. When applying for a position, applicants must be willing and able to teach using the delivery method specified.

Those courses already designated as Web courses must be taught asynchronously.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Relevant university degree and a Professional accounting designation. It is expected that all faculty will maintain their Professional Designation by keeping their membership and Professional Development hours up to date. Financial accounting courses require a working knowledge of international financial reporting standards as evidenced by successful completion of a course offered by a university or a professional accounting society.

EXPERIENCE: These positions require experience and/or aptitude to teach Accounting courses at the university level; relevant recent industry experience is expected. Note: Experience with teaching in an online environment may be considered as an asset in the appointment decision.

DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching (including labs where applicable), regularly scheduled office hours for student consultation, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as assigned.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES: Multi-sectioned courses are generally coordinated by a full-time faculty member. The successful applicant will be expected to participate in any meetings involving all instructors. At these meetings, a common syllabus (including a common grading scheme) may be set as well as any common assignments, tests, quizzes, projects and exams.

STUDENT MARKERS: Student markers may be hired for those courses with more than 30 students enrolled. The Department secretary is available to assist in the marker hiring process and with information on the online student / faculty matching system. It is the instructor's responsibility to interview and hire a suitable SMU student. Student markers may assist with quizzes and assignments only. It is the instructor's responsibility to mark all examinations.

SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with precedence level and in accordance with the current pay scales as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

DEADLINE: Applications must be received by Wednesday, Nov. 3, 2021 or until positions are filled.

TO APPLY: Please send your application via email to: Dr. Jeff Power jeff.power@smu.ca, with a copy to: Cathy Golden cathy.golden@smu.ca Department of Accounting, Saint Mary's University, Halifax, NS, B3H 3C3. Be sure to clearly indicate which course sections you are applying to teach, and in order of preference.

Qualified applicants who have precedence under the Collective Agreement with CUPE 3912 will be given first consideration for an appointment.

Department of Accounting Part Time Vacancies (CMLW)

CLOSING DATE: July 16, 2021

Note:

On-Campus: Course is held in person (on campus).

Synchronous online: Course is completed online only. Course requires students to connect at the specific times of day listed in Banner in order to be assessed or evaluated or to receive information critical to success in the course. This means that quizzes, tests, participation and other activities will be held during the specified times.

Asynchronous online : Course is completed online only. Course does NOT require students to connect at specific times in order to be assessed or evaluated or to receive information critical to success in the course. Ignore that the time for asynchronous courses is listed as TBA – a specific time will not be announced; TBA is simply the Banner system's default entry for courses without a specified time. This means that quizzes, tests, participation and other activities will be available in broad windows of time. A final exam may be scheduled at a specific time in some courses.

Department of Accounting Part Time Vacancies (ACCT)

The Department invites applications from qualified instructors for the following courses to be offered in the Fall semester beginning September 8, 2021.

NOTE: It is expected that classes offered during the Fall semester of 2021 will be a mixture of in-person classes taught on campus as well as those taught remotely, either synchronously or asynchronously. However, instructors must be prepared and able to teach from home or another secure and private location, even for on-campus classes, in case there is a renewed COVID outbreak and we revert to an all online delivery approach. The available courses are listed below with their preferred delivery approach. When applying for a position, applicants must be willing and able to teach using the delivery method specified.

Once hired, instructors will be asked to indicate whether they would prefer to teach their classes in a different format. While the department will try to accommodate these requests, the final decision on the method of delivery will still rest with the Department Co-Chair. Those courses already designated as Web courses must be taught asynchronously.

COURSE INSTRUCTION

All spring and summer term courses will be delivered remotely, involving one of two options: (a) asynchronous delivery, not requiring students to connect at any specific times in order to be assessed or receive information critical to success in the course; or (b) synchronous delivery, all other online deliveries that use some live/virtual sessions at scheduled times as posted. Please contact the Chairperson for additional details.

QUALIFICATIONS

(a) A master's degree or professional accreditation equivalent to a master's degree, or considerable work leading to a doctoral degree; or, professional study and experience deemed the equivalent of a master's degree.

(b) Aptitude for teaching university students.

Postsecondary teaching experience in courses similar to those for which you are applying and online teaching experience are desired, but not essential.

NEW APPLICANTS

Applicants who have no previous experience instructing courses in the Management Department must apply for appointment as delineated in Article 16.01 of the Collective Agreement. Appointment decisions take into consideration educational credentials, subject matter expertise, prior teaching experience, and evidence of teaching effectiveness. Applicants should clearly indicate the area(s) of specialization and the course level they are interested in teaching. New applicants will be considered only if no applicants with precedence have applied for a given course.

DUTIES

As delineated in Article 18 of the Collective Agreement: course preparation, teaching, student consultation, distribution of instructor evaluation questionnaires, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as deemed necessary.

SALARY RANGE

Commensurate with precedence level as delineated in Schedule A of the Collective Agreement.

APPLICATION DEADLINE

Consideration of applications will begin at 12:00 noon on Friday March 12, 2021.

TO APPLY: Please send your application to the Acting Chairperson of the Management Department at david.wicks@smu.ca

PART-TIME UNDERGRADUATE COURSES SUMMER 2021 – May 3 – June 19

QUALIFICATIONS: Master of Business Administration, concentration in Marketing

EXPERIENCE: The positions require experience teaching equivalent university courses; relevant industry experience is an asset. In response to COVID-19, these courses will be delivered remotely through online instruction. Experience teaching in an online environment will therefore be an asset.

DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching, student consultation, distribution of instructor evaluation questionnaires, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals.

SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with precedence level and in accordance with the current pay scale for half courses (.5 FCE) as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

CLOSING: 11:59pm, Monday, March 8, 2021.

APPLICATION: Please apply electronically to marketing@smu.ca

Qualified applicants who have precedence under the Collective Agreement with CUPE 3912 will be given first consideration for appointment.

The instructor may use either a synchronous or asynchronous delivery mode for these courses.

☐ Synchronous – The course will have elements that are delivered at the specific times of day listed in Banner. Those elements contribute to the assessment of the course, and could include (but are not limited to) lectures, quizzes, midterms, class participation, etc.

☐ Asynchronous – The course does not require students to connect at any specific times in order to be assessed or evaluated or receive information critical to success in the course. This means that quizzes, tests, participation, and other activities must be available in broad windows of time.

MKTG 3375.1 [CRN 30885]: International Marketing TR 09:30am-12:29pm

Students explore the economic, cultural, political, and legal aspects of international marketing, together with international product policy, distribution, pricing, and promotion. International consumerism, research, and management issues are also addressed.

MKTG 3379.1 [CRN 31176]: Marketing Management MW 01:30pm-

The objective of this course is to better equip students with the necessary analytic and communication skills to succeed as marketing managers. The focus is on practical applications. Course activities may include discussions, case analyses, simulation games, secondary research and field research projects. The course focuses on skill development and on integration of all decision areas in marketing.

Department of Accounting & Commercial Law Part Time Vacancies (CMLW)

The Department invites applications from qualified instructors for the following courses to be offered in the Spring and Summer semesters 2021.

NOTE: Most classes offered during the Spring and Summer semesters of 2021 will be taught remotely. There will be only a very limited number of on-campus classes. Fourth year courses will be given a priority for on-campus face-to-face classes but only if the instructor requests and it meets the University's restrictions based on class size, available facilities, health and wellness constraints, and departmental expectations with regard to program delivery. Instructors must be prepared and able to teach from home or another secure and private location, even for on-campus classes, in case there is a renewed COVID outbreak and we revert to an all online delivery approach. Once hired, instructors will be asked to indicate whether they would prefer to teach their classes asynchronously online, synchronously online, or on-campus. While the department will try to accommodate these requests, the final decision on the method of delivery will still rest with the Department Co-Chair. Those courses already designated as Web courses must be taught asynchronously.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Bachelor of Laws and Member of the Bar in a Canadian province. It is expected that all faculty will maintain their Professional standing by keeping their law society membership and professional development hours up to date

EXPERIENCE: These positions require experience and/or aptitude to teach Commercial Law courses at the university level. Relevant recent industry experience is expected.

Note: In response to COVID-19, it is expected that these courses will be primarily delivered remotely through online instruction. Experience with teaching in an online environment will therefore be considered as an asset in the appointment decision.

DUTIES: Course preparation, teaching, regularly scheduled office hours for student consultation, marking and grading, invigilation of final exam (if scheduled), submission of grades in accordance with University procedures and deadlines, involvement in student appeals (if applicable), and other duties as assigned.

ADDITIONAL DUTIES: These courses may be coordinated with other instructors. The successful applicant will be expected to participate in any meetings involving all instructors. At these meetings, a common syllabus (including a common grading scheme) may be set as well as any common assignments, tests, quizzes, projects and exams.

STUDENT MARKERS: Student markers may be hired for those courses with more than 30 students enrolled. The Department secretary is available to assist in the marker hiring process with information on the online student / faculty matching system. It is the instructor's responsibility to interview and hire a suitable SMU student if needed. Student markers may assist with quizzes and assignments only. It is the instructor's responsibility to mark all examinations.

SALARY RANGE: Commensurate with precedence level and in accordance with the current pay scales as set out in the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

DEADLINE: Applications must be received by Wednesday March 10, 2021 or until positions are filled.

TO APPLY: Please send your application via email stating which course sections you are applying to teach in order of preference to: Cathy Golden, Department of Accounting, Saint Mary's University, Halifax, NS, B3H 3C3 cathy.golden@smu.ca , copy to Dr. Jeff Power jeff.power@smu.ca .

Qualified applicants who have precedence under the Collective Agreement with CUPE 3912 will be given first consideration for an appointment.
