Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, below are the undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the 2022-2023 academic year.

In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

We offer on-campus, remote, and web-based courses. In all cases, candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely, should the need arise. Course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.

Students will explore how the different areas of psychology understand, inform, and at times contradict, knowledge of and diversity in sex and gender. Due to online delivery of this section of the course in winter semester of 2023, the Part-Time Academic will be responsible for developing and delivering this course online through supported Dalhousie platforms (e.g., Brightspace and/or MS Teams). Winter Semester – January to April 2023

1. Develop 12 weeks of online content, including lecture recordings, readings, quizzes, and other assessments – all hosted in either Brightspace (Dalhousie’s learning management system) or MS Teams.
2. Facilitate respectful online discussions and activities on the topics of sex and gender, including the roles of society and anatomy/physiology in shaping our understanding of, and behaviour related to, sex and gender.
3. Grade assessments and provide timely feedback to students. This position reports to the Chair of the Department.

Department of Psychology

Summer 2022 Undergraduate Teaching Opportunities

Posting Date: April 24, 2022

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, we are notifying you of undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Summer 2022 academic semester. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

While we anticipate a full back-to-campus offering in summer 2022, all candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely, should the need arise. Course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.

Application deadline: Friday May 6, 2022

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

All of the above information is required. Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Only applications submitted in response to this posting will be considered.

Department of Psychology

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of an undergraduate teaching opportunity in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Winter 2022 academic semester. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50.

The available course is:

PSYC 3410 Typical & Atypical Development (previously Disabilities).

Schedule: This course is scheduled to be held on-line/remotely in a synchronous format Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 8:00 pm.

Course Description: This course will examine the biological, psychological, and social impact of various types of acquired and developmental disabilities. This course is divided into three parts: (1) review genetic and environmental factors associated with developmental disabilities; (2) review of the physiological aspects of various types of acquired and developmental disabilities and the outcome; and (3) address the historical, political, ethical issues dealing with persons with disabilities in Canada.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. Applicants who have not previously taught the course should attach a Curriculum Vita and/or other relevant documents. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Application deadline: 5:00 pm Friday December 10, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

All of the above information is required. Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Only applications submitted in response to this posting will be considered.

Department of Psychology

Re: Winter 2022 Undergraduate Teaching Opportunities

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Winter 2022 academic semester. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

While we anticipate a full back to campus offering in winter 2022, all candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely, should the need arise. Course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.

Application deadline: October 20, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

Department of Psychology

Re: Fall 2021 Undergraduate Teaching Opportunity

Date: June 21, 2021

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of an undergraduate teaching opportunity in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Fall 2021 academic semester. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. The available course is:

PSYC 3410 Typical & Atypical Development (previously Disabilities).

Schedule: This course is scheduled to be held on-campus Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 8:00 pm.

Course Description: This course will examine the biological, psychological, and social impact of various types of acquired and developmental disabilities. This course is divided into three parts: (1) review genetic and environmental factors associated with developmental disabilities; (2) review of the physiological aspects of various types of acquired and developmental disabilities and the outcome; and (3) address the historical, political, ethical issues dealing with persons with disabilities in Canada.

All candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely, if the need arises. In this case, course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. Applicants who have not previously taught the course should attach a Curriculum Vita and/or other relevant documents. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Application deadline: Wednesday July 7, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

All of the above information is required. Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Only applications submitted in response to this posting will be considered.

Department of Psychology

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Fall 2021 academic semester. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

All candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely. Course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. Applicants who have not previously taught the course should attach a Curriculum Vita and/or other relevant documents. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote or on-line delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote or on-line teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.

Application deadline: Wednesday June 9, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

All of the above information is required. Incomplete applications will not be processed.

Only applications submitted in response to this posting will be considered.

Re: Spring & Summer 2021 Undergraduate Web-based Teaching Opportunities

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Spring and Summer 2021 sessions. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Web-based teaching assignments require that instructors have extensive experience and/or training in delivery of online content. Applicants who have not previously taught the course should attach a Curriculum Vita and/or other relevant documents. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with on-line delivery.

Individuals who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment. Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.

Application deadline: March 14, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. ## Re: Spring & Summer 2021 Undergraduate Teaching Opportunities

In accordance with the Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE Local 3912, I am notifying you of undergraduate teaching opportunities in the Department of Psychology at Saint Mary's University during the Spring and Summer 2021 Sessions. In accordance with Schedule A2 of the Collective Agreement, stipends per course/section range from $4,852 to $6,137.50. Available courses/sections are listed in the attached document.

All candidates must be willing to teach the course remotely. Course delivery may be synchronous (i.e., during the set schedule) or asynchronous (i.e., outside the scheduled course time), but in any case, instructors must be willing to accommodate students' schedules and time zones.

How to Apply: Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be deemed qualified to teach the course they are applying to teach. Applicants who have not previously taught the course should attach a Curriculum Vita and/or other relevant documents. To apply to teach a course/section, please send the following information in an email message: Course number and section and name of the course (e.g., Psyc 1210 Mind & Brain), a summary of previous/experience and/or qualifications for teaching the course in question, including any experience with remote delivery.

Individual who do not hold a current part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University must be appointed prior to receiving a teaching assignment.

Those applying for an appointment to teach shall possess a minimum of a Master's degree in Psychology or a closely related discipline; relevant experience and an aptitude for teaching at a post-secondary level; and will have preferably taught the course in question, or a similar course, within the last 3 years. Applicants should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, outlining any experience with remote teaching, c.v., proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions should be made as a single PDF file sent by e-mail to psychfacultyjobs@smu.ca.

Instructors wishing to apply for more than one course/section must send a separate email application for each individual course/section. Instructors applying for more than the maximum number of allowable assignments (the equivalent of 1 full credit course per semester) are welcome to express preferences; however, there is no guarantee of receiving expressed preferences. Instructors should only apply for those courses that they are willing and able to teach.
