CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: HIST 1215.1WW (3 Credits)

Ireland: An Introduction

Department: Department of History, Saint Mary's University

Semester: Fall 2023, Sept 6 – Dec 20/23

Schedule: Remote Synchronous, Tuesdays & Thursdays, 10-11:15 am

Academic Calendar Description:

The course is a general introduction to Ireland through a survey of the island's history. Although it is situated on the fringes of Europe, Ireland was influenced by developments on the continent from the earliest times. In addition, the later experience of overseas migration connected Ireland to developments across the Atlantic and beyond. This course will pay particular attention to how Ireland's history reflects these broader European and transatlantic connections.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant must possess a PhD in History and have experience teaching Irish History at the university level. Candidates with experience designing and delivering on-line courses, and who possess publications and/or demonstrated research in the field will be preferred.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities encompass all aspects of online course delivery – including the preparation of lectures and the creation and evaluation of all student assessments.

Remuneration:

CUPE 3912 Job Posting for Part-Time Instructor

Course: HIST 1215.2WW (3 Credits)

Ireland: An Introduction

Department: Department of History, Saint Mary's University

Semester: Winter 2022, Jan 10 – Apr 26

Schedule: Web

Academic Calendar Description:

The course is a general introduction to Ireland through a survey of the island's history. Although it is situated on the fringes of Europe, Ireland was influenced by developments on the continent from the earliest times. In addition, the later experience of overseas migration connected Ireland to developments across the Atlantic and beyond. This course will pay particular attention to how Ireland's history reflects these broader European and transatlantic connections.

Qualifications:

Preferred applicant must possess a PhD in History and have experience teaching Irish History at the university level. Candidates with experience designing and delivering on-line courses, and who possess publications and/or demonstrated research in the field will be preferred.

Duties:

Duties and responsibilities encompass all aspects of remote course delivery – including the preparation of lectures and the creation and evaluation of all student assessments.

Remuneration:

Remuneration is in accordance with the Collective Agreement between Saint Mary's University and CUPE 3912.

How to Apply:

Applications are invited in the first instance from part-time faculty colleagues on the Saint Mary's precedence list. Applicants who currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a cover letter and a C.V. Applicants who do not currently hold a part-time teaching appointment at Saint Mary's University should submit a complete application (including a cover letter, CV, proof of academic credentials, name and contact information of three referees, and any evidence of teaching effectiveness).

Submissions are made as a single PDF file sent directly via email to: history@smu.ca

Application deadline: June 18, 2021

Saint Mary's University hires on the basis of merit and is committed to the principles of employment equity. Saint Mary's University encourages applications from qualified women, visible minorities, Aboriginal people, and people with disabilities. Preference will be given to Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada.
